CORRECTIONS FOR "EPISCOPALIAN FIRE FIGHTERS IN YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN"

Marcia McCrary, Ypsilanti, Michigan

In the article I wrote on Episcopalian Fire Fighters in Ypsilanti in Volume 24, Number 4, Spring 2001, on page 63 there are several corrections which need to be made. My thanks go to Jo Ann Geer and Marion Gotshall for calling these to my attention.

The majority of the corrections deal with Worden Edgar Geer. The first correction is to the spelling of his wife's name, which should have been written Jo Ann. His baptismal date is correct, which was 27 June 1915, but for his birth, I misread Nov. as March. He was born 27 Nov. 1913. The priest's writing caught me again with Wordy's mother's last name: it was Worden, not Anders. I knew perfectly well that they were married at Wallace W. Worden's home, but that somehow translated itself into St. Luke's Episcopal Church, from whose records this information came.

In the section on Wallace Walter Worden, his birth date is an interesting question. I found a date of 17 October 1854 in the obituary cards done by Louis White that are at the Ypsilanti Archives. He cites St Luke's records for that date. The family Bible says 17 October 1855, as does the Portrait and Biographical Album. Both the stones at Highland Cemetery say 1854. One is on the Worden plot, and the other (Lot 93) is a stone "In Memoriam of Wallace Walter Worden, grandfather of Worden E. Geer."

While corrections are being made, I came across the Isaac Conklin Bible Record in DSGR, v. 39, p. 2, which was submitted by Mrs. Harold Sias of Chelsea. This bible record shows a birth date for Francis P. Bogardus of 9 May 1837, not the 1838 that I had found.
